

My Writing 'S' Plan

This week's key question:

What happens in the story of Jack and the Beanstalk?

Let's learn the story!

- Ordering pictures from the story
- Re-telling the story using a story map

Starting point:

What will our outcome be?

What makes a great story? Good/bad plan thinking tool.

Assessing what we remember and filling gaps (full stops, capital letters, do sentences make sense?)

What are my writing targets?

What will happen in my story?

- Creating a story mountain plan
- Ideas for interesting characters

Let's plan what happens in my story...

(using a story mountain plan)

This week's key question:

What do I need to include in my story for it to be successful?

What are similes and how can they make my sentences more interesting?

Now it's time to edit my work and make any changes that are needed. I'll get some feedback from my friends.

I can use my Evidence Map thinking tool here to help.

What is co-ordination and how do I use that to join my ideas in my sentences?

Let's write! I'll need to use a success criteria so I know how to be successful (this will include my targets).
