

How do I write a new version of Jack and the Beanstalk?

Outcome: To write a new version of Jack and the Beanstalk

Developing my character

Citizenship Compassion & Drive

Make a difference to my home, school, community and the wider world through showing compassion, empathy and drive

Citizenship

Drive

I show that I can support others around me with their learning.

Developing as a writer

English

Writing Knowledge and Skills

- ✓ Be able to plan a story and include new vocabulary
- ✓ To use similes for effect
- ✓ To use co-ordination to join ideas (or/and/but)
- ✓ To sequence sentences that tell a story, using (accurately):
 - Capital letters
 - Finger spaces
 - Full stops

Developing as a learner

Example

We can go out to play in the rain

- ✓ Good exercise
- ✓ It's fun
- ✓ We keep healthy
- ✓ It gives us a break
- ✓ We will see our friends

- × We will get wet
- × Our classroom will be messy

Evidence

- Letters joined
- ca mo*

Success Criteria

- Letters joined
- Full sentence
- Capital letters
- Full Stops

Evidence

- Full sentence
- I was walking in the woods

Evidence

- Capital letters
- I was
- Sarah went

Evidence

- Full stops
- Five sentences have full stops. One doesn't.

Independence

I will use the Good/Bad Plan which I already know from Year 1 and a new learning to learn tool, the Evidence Map. These tools will help me to organise my ideas. I didn't get round to using the Evidence Map in art but it should be really helpful for my writing.